- Please submit this form to NH Peace Action, 4 Park St., Suite 210, Concord, NH 03301 before September 15, 2013. Artwork should be brought to the Festival. If you cannot attend, you may deliver it to the address above.
- If your art requires special accommodations in order to be displayed, please be sure to provide the necessary equipment. We will have simple wire/clips for hanging.
- We will make every effort to ensure that all submissions can be picked up by their owners in original condition; however because the artwork will be on public display, NH Peace Action is not responsible for any lost or damaged art. You might stand with your art, too, to answer questions about it! We plan for media coverage.
- Entries must be entirely the original work of the artist.
- Artworks may be sold at the artist's discretion. Artists will handle their own sales. In the event of the sale, a donation to NH Peace Action Education Fund is encouraged and appreciated.
- NH Peace Action reserves the right to photograph entries and use images of art for publicity purposes.
- Please call the NHPA office if you have ANY questions! 603-228-0559
